

Instructions for students

Clue: The three envelops

In which of the three envelops is the missing clue?

Here you have three envelops. All three have a note for you. But be careful only one of them is telling the truth and this is probably not the one with the missing clue. You see, it's complicated. But if you all work together you will find the missing number.

Clue European Anthem

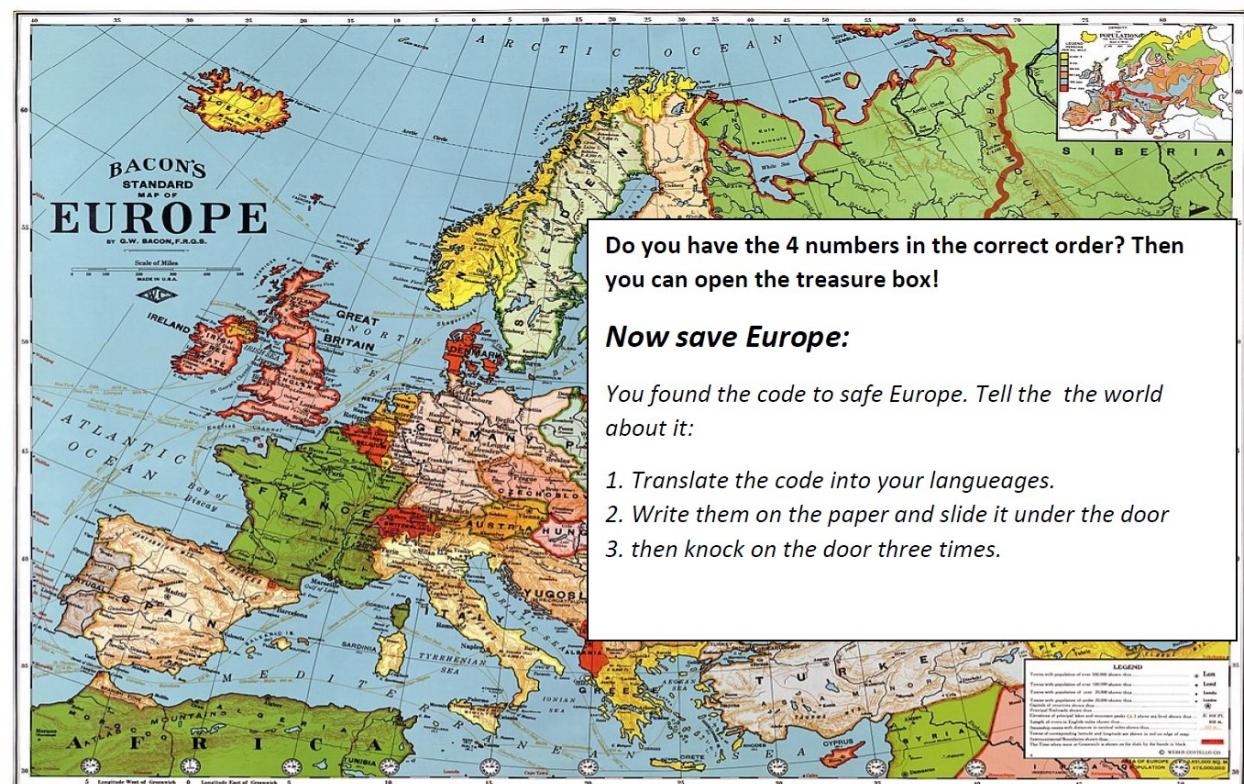

Do you know who the composer is?

To this number belongs the letter U

Clue correct order of the numbers:

Now, you have the 4 missing numbers for the lock, but you don't know in which order you have to use them. To get to the message which - will save Europe - you have to solve one more riddle. Notice: you have 4 numbers look out for a European symbol with 4 letters.

Do you have the 4 numbers in the correct order? Then you can open the treasure box!

Now save Europe:

You found the code to safe Europe. Tell the the world about it:

1. Translate the code into your languages.
2. Write them on the paper and slide it under the door
3. then knock on the door three times.

Important: These following card you have to hide in the treasure box

The following card you give as a certificate to your students when they translated the code to safe Europe in their language, slide the paper under the door and knock three times on the door

Certificate

Mission completed
The European Union is saved